MATIMOP | Your Gateway to Israeli Technology

Israel is a global leader in technology R&D, home to thousands of exciting start-ups, established enterprises and research institutions, at the forefront of technological innovation.

MATIMOP is Israel's national agency for international cooperation in industrial R&D. We implement the international R&D policy of the Office of the Chief Scientist (OCS), facilitating joint ventures and providing access to funding.

MATIMOP will find your strategic industrial R&D partner in Israel:

- The leading organization for Israeli-international R&D alliances, we maintain the largest, up-to-date database of Israeli R&D.
- MATIMOP provides ongoing professional support throughout the process of forming R&D alliances.
- We provide access to national funding sources through the Office of the Chief Scientist and foreign government agencies.

Strategic partnerships:

Minimize risk, financial exposure and time to market for your venture, with the right Israeli R&D alliance.
