Our K-9 Division is built by ex military and police trainers, ocers with decades of professional and operational experience.

We provide a full package that includes the following elements:

- Operational dogs with or without handlers.
- Professional consultation & establishment of K-9 Units.
- Development and deployment of K-9 teams for different security purposes.
- General equipment for the handler and special equipment for the K-9.

Our company specializes in supplying & training dogs for the following missions:

- Counter terror & Attack
- Explosive charges detection

- Explosives and rearm detection
- Drug detection
- Search and rescue
- Track and pursuit
- Guarding

All of our dogs must pass strict and tough qualications and suitability tests.

Those which have qualified start our long & intensive training programme emphasizing the specific task-oriented training.

Only the best and most qualified dogs which pass all the training and meet all the requirements will become ocial Tactical K-9.

Our highly experienced trainers make sure that our dogs are provided with the specific abilities & skills to best perform their task.

Each dog is trained for a specific task according to client's demand.
