

N.S.P. (National Security Projects)

N.S.P

11, Haamal St.
Afek Industrial Park
P.O.Box 11699
Rosh Haayin 48091, Israel

Tel: 972-3-9028900
Shlomoa@nsp-global.com
www.nsp-global.com

NSP (National Security Projects) is a system House dealing with all aspects of National security, with business initiatives, And with project implementation.

For national security, internal security, and policing, The company supplies a wide range of services and Solutions covering security and protection, from the Stage of strategic conception and planning to the Setup and implementation of projects, training, Practice and qualification, infrastructure and Technology, Monitoring and control, and ongoing Maintenance.

Fields of Activity

- Building a national security model
- Developing a unique model: Security x 8 – planning, Implementation and supervision
- Guarding and protecting the nation's borders
- Protecting the national infrastructure and critical facilities – airports, seaports, strategic infrastructure and energy infrastructure (e.g. power stations, gas, oil, water), land transport, sea transport, air transport, border, coasts, prisons, buildings, etc.
- Upgrading and establishing of forces for policing, security and enforcement
- Preparing for emergencies and handling of emergencies (assembling forces, procedures, security deployment, coordination and cooperation among the people involved, command & control centers, etc.)

- Protecting the community
- Developing homeland security and its components
- Training and qualification in cooperate with The Security Studies Center of Ariel University Center – professionalizing the field of security
- Business initiative and business development in Various spheres

N.S.P. Management

Shlomo Aharonishky - former police commissioner of israel, with many years of varied security experience.

Professional Partners

Professionals with first-class knowledge and experience in the company's range of activities: • security systems • law enforcement systems • strategic infrastructures • technology • emergencies and mass disasters • theory ... and more

The Company's Services

- Strategic consulting and professional consulting for organizations, companies, and countries on matters of security and protection
- Building a model and setting up a system against terror threats, unconventional terror, crime, serious disturbances, natural disasters, and mass disasters.
- Planning and implementing risk and threat analysis. Finding threats, scenarios, and vulnerabilities, and planning security and protection systems backed by various operational principles.
- Forming and setting an overall plan to deploy for safety and security.
- Requirements analysis, procurement, installation, operation, and maintenance of protective technologies, methods, and infrastructures for safety systems and security systems.
- Establishment, training, drilling, qualifying, and exercising safety and security units (local police forces, border police, civil patrols for protecting the community, and counterterror units, security firms, emergency squads, evacuation and rescue teams, government authorities)
- Control, supervision, and monitoring, including an emergency command and control policy.

